

Questions to ask your kid to spark an interesting conversation...

Questions are great! They get our brains buzzing and as we chew over our answers, they open up new ideas and get interesting conversations going.

Here are 101 'questions to spark an interesting conversation' which you can use with your family or church - however it works best for you. Maybe ask one on a long boring journey, or let your kid pick one to ask on the way to school, or have a question of the week. This isn't about right or wrong answers - it's about giving kids permission to ask and wonder and chew over what it means to be a Christian, to dig deeper into the Bible, and to think about who God is.

And as they hear our stories and ideas, they learn a bit more about our walk with God and learn that a relationship with God isn't about always knowing the right answer or never doubting: it's about wondering, and finding out and being okay with not knowing everything. We end every episode of the podcast with a new question to spark an interesting conversation.
